BY JAMES W. RILEY. All day I've ben a workin' hard Down in the blue-grass medder, A plowin' up the mealy loam, An' musin' sorter, whether I'd better put in oats this year. Or plant the field with barley; An' cogitatin' like, betwixt

I'm havin' quite a parley. The April sun is mighty warm An' down behind the holler I see a crocus pushin' up Its creamy buds of yaller; The fros', I hope, has left the ground An' spring seems really here, Old Nature dandles in her lap

The smillin' baby year. The sleepy silence broken by The sheep bells on the hill, An' all the world seems lazy like, An' kinder soft an' still; I heard a robin singin' shrili, An' see a jay sail by—

It seems like Nature's wondrous kind

To seeh poor trash ez I. Fer I'm hones', jest ex happy Ex a cat-bird on a tree, An' I can't help a singin' For the very life of me; An' the fitful, funnin' breezes From the southland seems to playe An' make me feel like laughin'

In a most amusin' way. Ez the sun to-night was settin', In a purplish bank of gold, An' the entile was a lowin', An' the sheep was in the fold; Ex I looked across the lowlands. Where the silver river lies: An' I thought of all our bounties

Till a mist came o'er my eyes. For the Lord is free with mercies, An' with blessings generons, for An' in His kind benevolence He brought me sufely through; A happy home, a humble roof, An' plenty's been my lot-Outside of Eden never was A more contented spot.
